Richard Arroyo Traveling/Living/Retiring in Mexico

Richard Arroyo, past Director, Mexico Marketing and Promotion in the United States, holds dual U.S./Mexican citizenship and for over 40 years has been a frequent visitor and resident of Mexico. He has traveled to all regions of the country. As a consultant to the Mexican government, for many years he supervised Mexico's marketing and promotion in the United States.

He currently lives in the Phoenix area part time and part time in Sn. Miguel de Allende, a favorite city for American, Canadian and European retirees and visitors.

During his presentation, Arroyo will enlighten you with surprising facts you may not know about Mexico. He will discuss the current status/conditions of widely-reported crime or dangers in Mexico and why Mexico is still a popular choice for retirees. He will also discuss cost of living considerations.

As a part of his presentation, he will show the movie "Gringolandia," an award-winning documentary about Americans living in Mexico and what they like and regret about their decision to move south of the Border.
